

Job Title:	Welder	Reports to:	Manufacturing Manager
Department:	Shop	Supervises:	n/a
Location:	New London	Exempt/Non-Exempt:	Non-Exempt
% Travel Required:	n/a	Full-time/Part-time:	Full-time

Job Description

Role Overview:

Welders are responsible for assembling, welding, and grinding Dahmes' projects, and is capable of completing projects with minimal instruction from supervisors. In addition, this role is accountable for completing projects in a timely manner and maintaining a safe, clean & organized work environment.

Responsibilities:

- Set-up and perform TIG & MIG welding to Dahmes quality standards
- Grind and polish metal to a sanitary finish using a variety of grinders
- Read and interpret blueprints to manufacture sub-assemblies
- Rig, lift and rotate parts and sub-assemblies using forklift & overhead crane
- Perform proper fit –up and tacking of all components
- Use a variety of hand and power tools to assemble equipment for projects
- Purge Welding Stainless Steel Tubing
- Hand Peen (hammer + block) stainless steel sheets after fit-up
- Maintain welding & grinding equipment
- Maintain a safe and clean workstation
- Follow quality guidelines as communicated from Welding Lead
- Participate in employee safety training
- Follow safety guidelines throughout all processes
- Other duties as assigned from Welding Lead or Manufacturing Manager

Requirements:

- Self-motivated to meet project deadlines
- Strong desire to learn new skills
- Ability to read blueprints
- Ability to work efficiently in a fast-paced shop environment
- Ability to work well with others
- Ability to complete work to DSI standards and expectations
- Stainless steel (TIG/MIG) welding experience
- Knowledge of various stainless steel polishing techniques and abrasives

Preferred Experience/Certifications/Education:

- Trade School Diploma
- Forklift certification
- 2+ years of stainless steel welding (TIG/MIG) and fabrication experience
- Purge welding experience